

INDICATOR: Social activity

Threshold: A raw score of 5 or below identifies poor social activity.

Specific indicators:

- Limited time spent with close friends.
- Seldom entertaining in home.
- Infrequent social activities outside of home.
- Lack of involvement in community organizations.

.

Interventions:

- Assess if poor social activity is related to health status.
- Identify local support resources.

Does the patient:

- express frustration with lack of close friends?
- feel isolated?
- have concerns about poor social activity?

2001